§1707. Other Responsibilities and Practices

A. Acting through Others

1. A CPA licensee or CPA firm shall not permit others to carry out on his behalf or on the firm's behalf, either with or without compensation, acts which, if carried out by the CPA licensee or CPA firm, would place him or the CPA firm in violation of the rules of professional conduct, professional standards, or any provisions of the Act.

2. Acting through an affiliated entity. ~~(an entity that is related to or affiliated by ownership to the CPA firm and/or its owners) that has a similar name. On and after January 1, 2008, a CPA firm shall not affiliate with an entity that has a similar name unless:~~

a. Definition

i. Affiliated entity: Affiliated entities for purpose of this rule refers to entities which share elements of ownership structure with a CPA firm and which offer to clients, or the public, professional services or products related to the skills associated with CPAs. Conversely, entities that offer services or products that do not relate to matters of accounting and financial reporting, tax, finance, investment advice or financial planning, management, or consultation are excluded.

ii. Similar name: A similar name is one that contains one or more names, or initials of the names, or reference to that/those names that are included in a CPA firm applying for or currently holding a firm permit.

b. On and after January 1, 2008, a CPA firm shall not affiliate with an entity that has a similar name unless:

a.i. the affiliated entity is owned in accordance with §1707.A.2.ed.i.; or

ii. has been issued a firm permit by the board pursuant to §1707.A.2.ed.ii; or b.iii. the CPA firm has entered into a written agreement with the board pursuant to §1707.A.2.ed.ii;

A.2.c. ...

~~d. Repealed. affiliated entities for purpose of this rule refers to entities which offer to clients or the public professional services or products related to the skills associated with CPAs. Conversely, entities that offer services or products that do not relate to matters of accounting and financial reporting, tax, finance, investment advice or financial planning, management, or consultation are excluded;~~

~~ed.~~ depending on the ownership structure, an affiliated entity may be required to obtain a firm permit in order to use a similar name which indicates that the CPA or CPA firm is providing services through the affiliated entity. A similar name is one that contains one or more names, or initials of the names, or reference to that/those names that are included in a CPA firm applying for or currently holding a firm permit, or one tending to indicate that such firm is a CPA firm;

A.2.d.i-iii.; ...

~~f.e.~~ under R.S. 37:77(C), a majority of the ownership of a CPA firm (in terms of financial interests and voting rights of all partners, officers, shareholder, members, or managers) must belong to holders of valid licenses. Thus an unlicensed "holding company" cannot own a majority or 100 percent of a CPA firm. Therefore, such a "holding company" would have to apply for a CPA firm permit and qualify as such. The holding company and the CPA firm must both be registered as firms with the board even though the holding company will not directly offer services to clients. If the holding company does not otherwise meet the requirements to be licensed (e.g., the requirements that a majority ownership interest is held by licensees; the owners must be active in the firm or affiliates; and, the name must not be misleading) then such a firm structure would not be permissible.

B. Use of the "CPA Inactive" or "CPA Retired" Designation

1. Certificate only holders under prior law.

a. Prior to applying for and obtaining a certificate under R.S. 37:75.I, individuals who annually register in inactive status may use the "CPA inactive" designation in connection with an employment position held in industry, government or academia, or in personal correspondence.

a.b. Any such individual who offers to perform or performs, for the public, professional services of any type involving the use of accounting, management advisory, financial advisory, tax, or consulting skills shall not use the designation CPA or "CPA inactive" in connection therewith or in any other manner or in connection with any employment.

2. Certificate Holders Subject to CPE Exemption

a. ...

b. Any individual referenced in R.S. 37:76(D)(2) who after being granted an exemption under that Section offers to perform or performs for the public professional services of any type involving the use of accounting, management advisory, financial advisory, tax, or consulting skills shall no longer qualify for the use of the designation and shall immediately cease all uses of ~~not use~~ the designation "CPA inactive" or "CPA-retired" in connection therewith or in any other manner or in connection with any employment or on any letterhead, business card, email signature, etc.

c. ...

C. Firm Name

1-2... .

3. A CPA firm name is misleading within the meaning of R.S. 37:83(G) if, among other things:

a. ...

b. the CPA firm name includes the name of a person who is not a CPA and is not a past partner, shareholder, or member of the firm.

C.4.-E. ...

F. Cooperation with Board Inquiry or Investigation. A licensee or CPA inactive or CPA retired status registrant certificate holder, or CPA licensed in another state who has provided professional services to Louisiana clients, or CPA licensed in another state who may be granted rights under the substantial equivalency provisions of R.S. 37:94, shall fully cooperate with the board in connection with any inquiry or investigation made by the board. Full cooperation includes, but is not limited to, fully responding in a timely manner to all inquiries of the board or representatives of the board and claiming board correspondence from the U.S. Postal Service and from other delivery services used by the board.

G. Denial, Suspension, or Revocation by another state. Pursuant to R.S. 37:76 (F), each holder of or applicant for a certificate shall notify the board in writing within 30 days
